MINE OWNERS' ROW CLAIM THE DEFENSE

Wardner Trouble Not of The Miners' Union Says Richardson

Cross-examination of Orchard Draws Enormous Crowds---Made to Admit More Damaging Things Against Himself

BY J. S. DUNNIGAN

[Associated Dailies Telegram]

Boise, Idaho, June 7—The courtroom and jail yard is filled today with a great crowd to hear the cross examination of Orchard by Attorney Richardson.

Recurring to the Wardner affair, Orchard could remember only one man, Gus Peterson, who helped carry the powder to the mill house.

He helped place the powder and lit the fuse.

Orchard admitted he was a poker player. All incidents relating to the Bunker Hill affair were all gone over Orchard being pinned down to every move made that day.

Referring to the meeting of the Burke Union when a vote was taken to go to Wardner and blow up the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines. Richardson asked Orchard who notified him to go. He did not remember Orchard answered details regarding the trip to Wardner. This line of interrogation is to lay the basis for showing that the wrecking of the mine was the outcome of a mine owners row.

Orchard said he worked three years after the Cour D'Alene trouble in Utah, Nevada and California.

ORCHARD SAID HE SAW SOLDIERS AT THE VINDICATOR MINE AND FELT RESENTMENT.

DAVIS SUGGESTED THE MINE BE BLOWN UP AND OFFERED $300 TO DO THE JOB

DAVIS ADMITTED 50 MEN WOULD BE KILLED SAID HE DID NOT CARE HOW MANY WERE KILLED.

Boise, Idaho, June 7—Finishing his chapter of murders, assassinations and plots in which he maintains William D. Haywood, Charles H. Moyer and George A. Pettibone were the chief conspirators and he and Steve Adams and Jack Simpkins were the instruments of atrocious vengeance, Harry Orchard crowned his admissions of bloody deeds when he made detailed confession of the murder of Frank Steunenberg by an infernal machine. On direct examination in the Haywood trial he swore the murder of Steunenberg was first suggested by Haywood; was jointly plotted by Haywood, Moyer, Pettibone and himself; was financed by Haywood, and was executed by himself, after the failure of an attempt in which Jack Simpkins had participated. Orchard lifted the total of his own murdered victims to 18, detailed the circumstances under which he tried to murder former Governor Peabody, Judge Goodard, Judge Gabbert, General Sherman Bell, D. H. Moffat and Frank Herne. Incidentally he confessed to a plan to kidnap the child of one of his former associates.

Orchard, under cross-examination by Attorney Richardson of the defense, frankly confessed guilt of the sordid crimes of deserting his young child and wife in Ontario, fleeing to British Columbia with Hattie Simpson, the wife of another man, and committing bigamy by marrying a third woman at Cripple Creek. Through the shocking details of plots, stories of secret bombmaking, and tales of man hunts with sawed-off shotguns and infernal machines as weapons, the witness went on in the same quiet off-hand manner that marked his demeanor Monday. His voice dropped to lower keys as the pitiful story of the long hunt for Steunenberg narrowed down to the last day and he told of the race from the hotel to the home to beat his victim with the death trap and the meeting in the evening gloom as the victim walked unconsciously to his doom. Through it all he winced but once, and that was when the defense made him name his six sisters and his one brother and give their residences in Ontario and New York.

In all these plottings and killings, Orchard maintains that he was advised and guided and paid by Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. He did most of his consulting, plotting and bomb making, he says, with Pettibone, and under arrangements that they had, Haywood supplied money to Pettibone, and the latter turned it over to Orchard.

It was Haywood's plan, said Orchard, that he should put Steunenberg out of the way, then go to Patterson, N. J., and write letters to Sherman Bell, Peabody, Goddard, Gabbert and others that their similar fates was only deferred.

The defense fought the story with a multiplicity of objections and succeeded in heading off an attempt to tell the story of the murder of Arthur Collins at Telluride, and temporarily shutting out the contents of a tele-

DEATH CLOSES THE EYES OF VINC'T FERGUSON

End Comes Peacefully to Prominent West Lafayette Man

The eyes of Vincent Ferguson, one of Coshocton county's most revered sons, were closed in death at 7 o'clock Thursday evening at his home just east of West Lafayette, near the college which he practically founded and which he has lived to see become a valuable institution of learning. He donated the land for the college site and has ever kept a fostering hand near it.

His death though not unexpected has cast a gloom over the community in which he lived and labored for so many years. He was county commissioner for two terms, and active in Democratic politics.

Wednesday afternoon he suffered a second stroke of paralysis, the first having come about three years ago, and his system was unable to withstand the shock.

He was 64 years of age and is survived by a wife, one son, Harry Ferguson, and one daughter, Miss Helena Ferguson, all at West Lafayette. He was born at West Lafayette and lived there all his life, his father having lived on the same farm. He married Miss Rachel Bates, of Tuscarawas county in 1866.

Mr. Ferguson also leaves four sisters: Mrs. Mary Hootman of Plainfield, Mrs. James Randles and Mrs. Elizabeth Shurtz, of Arkansas City, Kas., and Mrs. Ellen Dayton of Beaumont, Texas. He was one of 14 children, his parents being Andrew and Mary Ferguson.

Owing to his death the citizens' mass meeting on the college campus has been postponed until next week.

The funeral services will be conducted at the late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made at the Brick Chapel near the college. Dr. Wells, now in the northern part of the state and Rev. Black will conduct the services. Mr. Ferguson was a staunch member of the M. P. church, a man of public spirit, and a citizen who has made the world the better for his having lived

ABILITY OF CLASS A HAPPY SURPRISE

Every seat with the exception of a paltry few at the top of the gallery was taken at the Sixth Street theatre Thursday evening when the class of '07 put on "The Heavenly Twins" They all covered themselves with glory and surely there never was a class which displayed more histronic ability per capita.

The plot of the play may be given in brief in a few words; George Barton and Tom Jackson, both "Yale men" are being sent to the home of former's uncle up in the country for a few weeks much needed (?) rest; on the way they stop in the town in which Miss Brown's Select school for young ladies is located, become decidedly "taken" with two of the girls, enter the school in feminine attire are arrested for thieves and only saved from summary incarceration in the nearest jail by the timely arrival of George's mother which makes everything end happily.

Such Heavenly Ones.

Harold Farrish and Don Porter took the parts of the twins and took them well; in the prologue they played the roles of college freshman quite to the queen's taste and when the time came for them to don skirts and curls and various other articles of feminine adornment they did it in a way which would have done credit to any one, even Charley's famous "aunt from Brazil where the nuts come from."

A Clever Cast.

Miss Claire Glenn took the part of Miss Samantha Brown (the principal of the "select school" where it all happens) and was the old fashioned school mistress true to life and a pretty one too. She won much hearty applause by her excellent rendition of the part Indeed Miss Glenn's work was a pleasant surprise even to her friends. Miss Helen Brooke was the co-principal, Miss Sophronia Brown, and while she did not say much she looked volumns and was the personification of the argus-eyed chaperone of whom tradition tells.

Miss Anne Anderson took the part of Mrs. Prof. Barton, George's mother, carrying it off with a charming grace which is all her own, Miss Lucy Merrell played the maid exceedingly well, Miss Ione Glass and Miss Margie Agnew were Adele DeCourcey and Helen Clark (the two girls who caught the fancy of the twins) Frank Strausser was a detective of notable parts, and Misses Nelle Dockenwaddle, Faith Shannon, Georgia Williams Margaret Green, Mary Selby and Wilma Clark made as winsome a company of school girls as ever distracted a teacher's mind.

They giggled and ate quantities of olives and fudge with an abandon which only school girls know and did it all in a remarkably realistic way which the audience took to from the beginning

Class Possesses Talent

And then very cleverly interpolated in the second act came "The Friday afternoon Literary program" which showed another side of ability of these versatile young people

Miss Dockenwaddle and Miss Glass played a brillant instrumental duet. Miss Glass sang "Sleep and Forget" with voice and manner which makes one predict happy things for her along musical lines; Miss Margie Agnew sang "School Days," a pretty thing in swing rythm which suited her beautiful soprano voice well. She was followed by Miss Nellie Dockenwaddle whose selection "Good Night, Little Girl, Good Night" was sung with voice and manner so sympathetic and sweet that the audience burst into instinctive applause before the song was done and applauded even more enthusiastically as the last clear note sank into silence.

That Bear Story

The program ended with the reading "Riley's Bear Story" by Miss Claire Glenn: the audience had already warmly applauded Miss Glenn's work in the role of "Miss Brown" but the way she told the inimitable "Bear Story" fairly brought down the house; every bit of the humor in it was brought out and handled with a deftness and ability which showed remarkable talent.

An honored place in the program was also given the very interesting history and prophecy of the class which was the result of the combined wit of Miss Anne Anderson and Miss Georgia Williams, and was read by the latter.

He Did Well.

Another deviation from the play proper which the audience thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated was the solo which Harry Parrish sang in the

TROLLEY MEN WERE VIEWING COSHOCTON

Electric railway men were in Coshocton this week looking over a trolley route to be projected through this section from Orrville, to which point the lines have already been extended from the north. The proposed line would cross the river here and go down through the Muskingum valley

One of the men here is prominently connected with the Westinghouse company, of Pittsburg. They are following the route from here to Millersburg making a slight detour at Keene on account of the steep grade there.

It would open up an entirely new country and would mean much to the section through which it is to pass.

AIR BREAKS THROWS CARS HURT PILOT

Engineer George Nichols of Columbus was slightly injured in a peculiar wreck that occurred about 8 o'clock Friday morning near R D tower 2 miles west of Frazeysburg Engine 8500 was disabled in some manner and Engineer Nichols was p[illegible] the train along

The air hose at the rear end of the disabled train burst and threw two cars and the caboose from the rails, and blocked both tracks. Mr. Nichols was injured in the smashup which followed, his engine pushing into the derailed cars before he realized what had happened. He was taken to Columbus on No. 7

The wreck train from Dennison was called to clear the tracks which were blocked more than an hour.

MAYOR SCHMITZ

Scores a Point During Cross-Examination of Chief Witness.

San Francisco, June 7.—The defense in the trial of Mayor Schmitz for extortion scored what they considered a signal point, during the cross-examination of one of the prosecution's chief witnesses, Antonio B Blanco of Delmonico's, one of the five French restaurants from whose owners the mayor and Ruef are accused of having extorted thousands of dollars under threats, implied if not expressed, to prevent the reissuance of their liquor licenses "Did Ruef or Mayor Schmitz ever tell you that if you did not pay this money you would not get your license renewed?" asked Attorney Campbell, the mayor's senior counsel. "No," replied Blanco promptly; "they did not."

Japs Still Talking.

Tokio, June 7.—The Hochi, which is supporting Count Okuma in his position on the American question, says: "The San Francisco outrages are worse than the murder of a missionary in China, which resulted in occupation of Kiao Chow. Who would blame an appeal to the last measure if an impotency to protect treaty rights is proved? We hope, however, that Ambassador Aoki will be firm enough to make the Washington government quickly take measures to mete out justice to the Japanese."

Mrs. Harrington was formerly Mrs. Fred Gerdes, and is the mother of four children by that marriage. She was divorced from Gerdes. Her elopement with Harrington was her fourth matrimonial venture In a letter received here by her daughters, Mrs. Harrington said she intended leaving Los Angeles for Youngstown.

Cornelius Gets Respite.

Columbus, O., June 7. — Governor Harris granted a respite until June 21 to James Cornelius, the Canton wife murderer, who was to have been electrocuted at midnight. The respite was given to enable the governor to further consider the case and allow Cornelius' friends to present further evidence regarding Cornelius' condition at the time he committed the crime. His friends claim that he was crazed by liquor and that he was not guilty of first degree murder.

Stabbed In a Quarrel.

Cincinnati, O., June 7—In a quarrel which began in a saloon, Herman Bruns, shipping clerk, was stabbed to death by Stanley Davis, grocery clerk, on the street near Twelfth and Main. The quarrel was caused by Bruns' jokingly blowing some snuff over the bar to which Davis took exception. Bruns was stabbed four times in the abdomen and died before the hospital was reached. Davis has not as yet been captured.

Boy's Discovery.

Niles, O., June 7. — While romping through his father's barn Robert Noble noticed a plugged piece of flooring, and led by curiosity he removed the plug with his penknife. Beneath it he found one hundred five-dollar bills neatly wrapped in a piece of cloth. The money was crisp and clean, and was issued on the Farmers' bank of Frankfort, Ky., in 1864. How the bills came to be hid in the barn is a mystery.

The McKinley Home.

Canton, O., June 7.—Justice Day, president of the National McKinley Memorial association, said that Mrs. M. C. Barber of this city, sister of Mrs. McKinley, intended to donate the homestead of the late president and wife to the memorial association if it could be purchased from the brother and sisters of President McKinley and their relatives, to whom it passed under the will.

Danderine

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Shake-up in Several Places

Miss Rahn has taken second place from Miss Wable in District three and is now first below Miss Stanton. The other districts remain the same. Miss Geneva Wright has added a few votes and expects to come in soon with a surprising subscription vote. Miss Bernice Wright the new candidate in District two is working hard and hopes to put up a strong rivalry for the first place against Miss Minnie Keehn.

Miss Wheeler, in District four, is coming up rapidly placing a nice subscription vote, while Miss McShane is getting some nice ones lined up.

Miss McCormick has shot ahead again with another big vote and now holds the leading place with a majority over her closest rival, Miss Stanton.

On Saturday The Age will announce the standing of the working candidates, irrespective of districts, for the week. In this way may be seen just what each candidate has done during the week. New candidates will of course, be excused for not appearing in this list because of the fact that they are to be given a fair chance to make a showing next week.

Some of the candidates are said to be so sure they are among the winners that they are planning for the big free trip to be given by The Age. Now, don't be one of the sure ones. You may be right and you may not. However, you'll know for sure within a very short time.

Don't be sure of winning without a hustling campaign manager. If you have the support of some strong secret society, church, club or factory you're in to win if you work it right.

About those sodas "on" the contest editor. Don't hesitate about a small thing like that, but come right up and claim your laurels.

STAY IN TO WIN AND GO WITH OUR JOLLY PARTY FOR TEN DAYS OF SIGHT SEEING AND A GOOD TIME.

CORDIAL

Are Venezuela's Relations With the Powers—Castro's Speech.

Curacco, June 7.—President Castro, whose strength is returning gradually, attended the Venezuelan congress and read his message to that body. Referring to the foreign relations of the republic of Venezuela, the president said: "I am pleased to inform you that our political relations with friendly countries are increasingly cordial. Within a short period the claims of Great Britain, Germany and Italy, which were given preference at The Hague, will be fully paid. I regret to inform you that diplomatic relations with Colombia have not yet been renewed. The correspondence on this subject will prove that the failure to execute the stipulations of the renewal are not attributable to Venezuela."

Royston, England, June 7.—The case of Miss Fox, an American, charged with manslaughter, was heard here. On May 1 Miss Fox was motoring to the Newmarket races and her car struck and killed William Parrish, a laborer. The magistrate decided there was not sufficient evidence to send the case to trial.

SEAWARD

The Airship Was Blown and the Navigator Has a Narrow Escape.

Boston, June 7.—The breaking down of his motor, which allowed the airship he was navigating to be blown seaward, almost resulted in the death of Lincoln Beachy off Revere Beach. Beachy had made a seven mile journey from Revere Beach to Boston, sailing high over the city, and passing over the steeple of the Park street church and the statehouse dome, finally landing on Boston common, where thousands of persons were attracted by the airship. On the return journey to Revere Beach, the motor became disabled when the aeronaut was over Boston harbor. The airship settled rapidly. Men in rowboats and launches seized the drag rope and towed him ashore before he struck the water.

Helen M. Gougar, 70, the well known temperance leader and lecturer, dropped dead at her home in Lafayette, Ind., of heart failure.

Former Judge J. S. Bessier, a well known Confederate veteran, fell from a train at Easley, S. C. and was killed. He was returning from the Richmond reunion.

Your Hair Needs Care

A little time devoted to the care of the hair works wonders. Just use Ayer's Hair Vigor, the new kind, systematically and conscientiously, and see the result. Stops falling hair, cures dandruff, makes the hair grow. Ask your doctor about this. [illegible] J. C. Ayer Co., [illegible]

A Rock in The Baltic.

By ROBERT BARR.

Author of "The Triumphs of Eugene Valmont," "Tekla," "In the Midst of Alarms," "Speculations of John Steele," "The Victors," Etc.

Copyright, 1906, by Robert Barr. By Arrangement with The Authors and Newspapers Association of New York.

The morning was fine. In the east the sun had just risen and was flooding the grim rock with a rosy light. Except this rock no trace of land was visible as far as the eye could see. Alongside the steamer was moored a sailing boat with two masts, but provided also with thole pins and sweeps for rowing. The sails were furled, and she had evidently been brought to the steamer's side by means of the oars. Into this craft the crane was lowering boxes, bags and whatnot, which three or four men were stowing away. The mate was superintending this transshipment, and the captain, standing with his back against the deckhouse, was handing one by one certain papers, which Lermontoff took to be bills of lading, to a young man who signed in a book for each he received. When this transaction was completed, the young man saluted the captain and descended over the ship's side of the sailboat.

"Good morning, captain. At anchor, I see," said Lermontoff.

"No, not at anchor. Merely lying here. The sea is too deep and affords no anchorage at this point."

"Where are all these goods going?"

The captain nodded his head at the rock, and Lermontoff gazed at it again, running his eyes from top to bottom without seeing any vestige of civilization.

"Then you lie to the lee of this rock, and the small boat takes the supplies ashore?"

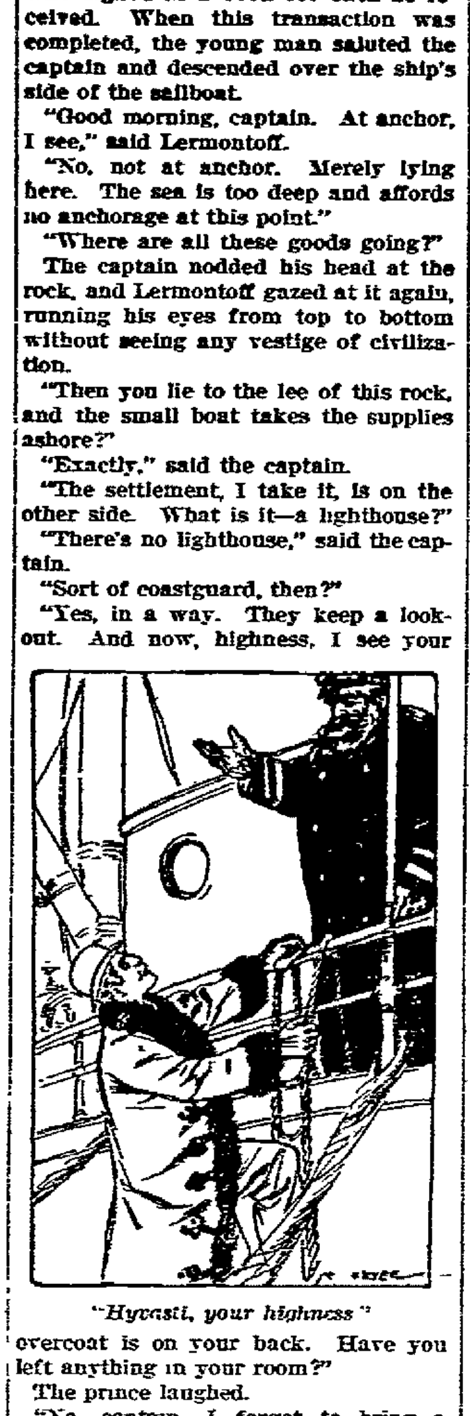
"Exactly," said the captain.

"The settlement, I take it, is on the other side. What is it—a lighthouse?"

"There's no lighthouse," said the captain.

"Sort of coastguard, then?"

"Yes, in a way. They keep a lookout. And now, highness, I see your overcoat is on your back. Have you left anything in your room?"



"Hyvasti, your highness."

The prince laughed.

"No, captain, I forgot to bring a portmanteau with me."

"Then I must say farewell to you here."

"What, you are not going to maroon me on this pebble in the ocean?"

"You will be well taken care of, highness."

"What place is this?"

"It is called the Trogzmondoff, highness, and the water surrounding you is the Baltic."

"Is it Russian territory?"

"Very, very Russian," returned the captain, drawing a deep breath. "This way, if your highness pleases. There is a rope ladder, which is sometimes a little unsteady for a landsman, so be careful."

"Oh, I'm accustomed to rope ladders. Hyvasti, captain."

"Hyvasti, your highness."

And with this mutual goodby in Finnish the prince went down the swaying ladder.

CHAPTER XV.

FOR once the humorous expression had vanished from Captain Kempt's face, and that good natured man sat in the dainty drawing room of the flat a picture of perplexity. Dorothy had told him the story of the nihilist, saying she intended to purchase the yacht and outlining what she proposed to do with it when it was her own. Now she sat silent opposite the genial captain, while Katherine stood by the window and talked enough for two, sometimes waxing indignant and occasionally giving in terse language an opinion of her father, as is the blessed privilege of every girl born in the land of the free, while the father took the censure with the unprotesting mildness of his nature.

"My dear girls, you really must listen to reason. What you propose to do is so absurd that it doesn't even admit of argument. Why, it's a filibustering expedition, that's what it is. You girls are as crazy as Walker of Nicaragua. Do you imagine that a retired captain of the United States navy is going to take command of a pirate craft of far less legal standing than the Alabama, for then we were at war, but now we are at peace. Do you actually propose to attack the domain of a friendly country? Oh!" cried the captain, with a mighty explosion of breath, for at this point his supply of language entirely gave out.

"No one would know anything about it," persisted Katherine.

[illegible] HOME AFTER 9 YEARS IN PHILIPPINES

Chas. B. Compton expects to sail June 26 from Southhampton, England for New York on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. The last word received from him came from Rome.

He has been away from Coshocton nearly nine years. He went to the Philippine Islands in 1899 as a member of the Signal Corps U. S. A., and saw considerable field service and passed through many adventures during the Insurrection, on the Islands of Panay and Negros.

In 1922 he accepted a commission in the Constabulary, which is the Colonial Army of the Philippines, composed of 5,000 native soldiers with American and English officers, in which organization he rose to the rank of Captain and later transferred to the Bureau of Posts which has to do with the mails and telegraph. In this bureau he is now a district inspector, having five provinces under his supervision.

Owing to his long sojourn in this tropical climate his health has become somewhat impaired and he is now returning by the way of the Suez Canal and Europe—visiting the Holy Lands and Europe en route—on a long leave of absence to visit at his former home in Coshocton with the intention of returning to the Philippines next fall.

Deck's Dogs Like The Place

Some one pulled the staple out of the door of the dog kennell Thursday night and allowed two of Turnkey Decker's dogs to escape. The others remained in the kennell, evidently having become attached to the place.

Incendiary Blaze.

Lorain, O., June 7.—Firebugs applied the torch to the old American house, which was purchased by the Shipbuilding company and used during the strike to house the strikebreakers. Loss $3,000.

How to live on 15 cents a day. The mind as well as the body is benefitted by economy in eating. There's no health giver like a diet of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. In a startling way it keeps you going. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. C. E. Anderson.

Ask For an Injunction.

Findlay, O., June 7.—George H. Phelps filed an action against the Standard Oil company, asking the court to enjoin the Buckeye Pipe Line company transporting oil through its line from western oil fields belonging to any person being identified with the Standard Oil company or its subsidiaries. The action of transporting oil in this manner is alleged to be a conspiracy against trade as well as against the interests of those for whom this action is brought. Mr. Phelps, who brings the action, was until recently the law partner of Prosecutor David.

Doctor Said [illegible]

MR. ANDREW MAYER.

Mr. Andrew [illegible] Grove St., [illegible] contracted a severe [illegible] which continued [illegible] that the doctor said [illegible] bronchitis or [illegible] and after he tried [illegible] tor's prescription, [illegible] ceived no relief, he decided [illegible] use DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, which [illegible] cured him and restored [illegible] health and strength.

Letters like the following [illegible] received daily telling of [illegible] velous cure due to the timely [illegible] of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, as prescribed:

"I had a severe cough for some time [illegible] became extremely alarmed because my [illegible] told me I had bronchitis and another [illegible] consumption. As I received little benefit from the remedies prescribed for me I began to think what the doctors had said was only too true. [illegible] finally decided to take DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, with little hope of the result that followed. Slowly the coughing spells lessened in frequency and the quantity [illegible] up also became less, and my strength which had sadly failed, is now as good as ever. I feel that I am saved, and that I owe my good fortune to the timely use of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY."—ANDREW MAYER, [illegible] Grove St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. [illegible], 1906.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been [illegible] public and this private process insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from [illegible] injurious substances found in other whiskies make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs. Its results are free from that depressing effect caused by poisoning the blood with many medicines. It is a tonic and invigorant for old and young, and its medicinal properties make it invaluable to overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been analyzed many times by the best chemists during the past fifty years and has always been found to be absolutely pure.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken and that our guarantee is on every bottle. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

INDORSED BY BOTH FACTIONS

Washington, June 7.—The appointment of General William V McMaken as collector of internal revenue at Toledo, O., has been announced by President Roosevelt. The following statement was made at the White House:

"This appointment has been recommended by both senators, and upon full investigation the president finds that General McMaken is more generally supported than any other candidate named, because he has the united support of all the Republicans of the district, and also has the recommendation of both Messrs Southard and Brown, representing opposing factions in Lucas county, the chief county of the district. More than that General McMaken has been recommended most highly to the president by the national guard."

Strike Closes Furnaces.

El Paso, Tex., June 7.—Seven of the eight furnaces of the El Paso smelter, one of the properties of the American Smelting and Refining company, are shut-down on account of a strike of 150 scalemen, who demand an increase of wages.

MEANS MORE PROSPERITY

It is glad news to Coshocton to learn that the glass factory intends making additions and improvements the coming summer that will give employment to an additional 80 men. This is as good as a new factory. In fact if it should be announced that a new factory had been secured for Coshocton, giving employment to 80 men, many of them high class labor, with a comfortable payroll each week, the flags would be unfurled and the welkin ring—or words to that effect. People are prone to overlook the fact that a big addition to a going plant is just as good as another new factory, and counts just as much to the city's prosperity. The Age congratulates the Messrs Liewer on their enterprise and success and Coshocton will shout just as joyfully as though a brand new factory had been caught and anchored here. The glass factory has one of the most welcome whistles in town.

GOVERNORS OF OHIO

DAVID TOD—1862-1864.

David Tod was the second of Ohio's war governors. He was an able speaker and took an active part in the political affairs of his state. In 1838 he was elected to the state senate as a Democrat and two years later devoted his time in canvassing the state for Van Buren, gaining a high reputation for oratory during this campaign. In 1844 he was a candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, but was defeated. In 1860 he was a delegate to the Charleston convention and presided over it when the southern party withdrew. He was strongly for the Union and was elected governor in 1861 by the Republicans, his majority being 55,000. His fame as a war governor extended far. His earnest effort to recruit the army, his watchfulness and sympathy for the Ohio soldiers suffering the hardships of war, his care for their families and his vigorous repulse of the invaders of the state make his administration a notable one. He served the national government as minister to Brazil from 1847 to 1852. He was born at Youngstown in 1805, and there died Nov. 13, 1868.

WOMEN PAY MORE.

Why Insurance Companies Discriminate Against the Gentle Sex

Medical examiners of insurance companies say that the reason a woman pays more for the privilege of insurance than a man, is from the fact that women more readily fall victims to indigestion and stomach troubles and the fatal ailments that spring from these causes.

All persons they say, who have a weakened digestive system and suffer from sick headache, dizzy spells, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness, and the many other symptoms of indigestion, soon lower the tone of the whole system and are most susceptible to a fatal illness.

For curative power in all stomach troubles, nothing else is as safe yet effective, nothing else can be thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Mi-o-na. It is unlike any remedy heretofore known and is really one of the valuable discoveries in modern medical science.

It is not the acute attacks that influence the insurance examiners alone, but the constant feelings of weakness, headaches, indigestion and stomach troubles—these things, physicians say, kill more people than many more serious diseases.

To escape this condition of ill health, to enjoy one's food and yet never suffer with indigestion, a person should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They are not a mere digestive tablet, but strengthen and restore to natural action the stomach and bowels and effect a complete cure in even the worst form of stomach troubles.

C. E. Andersen sells Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes under a guarantee to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energiesare flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs.

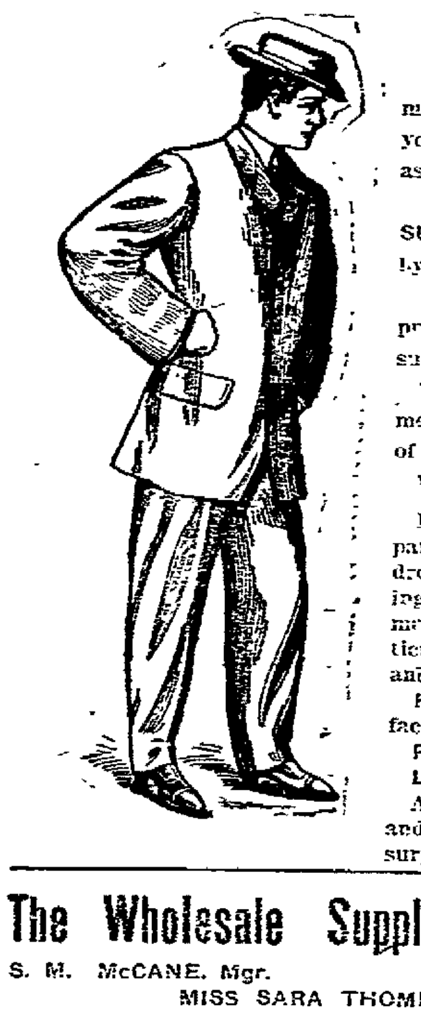
It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female sysem. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

Who's Your Tailor?

THE WHOLESALE SUPPLY AND TAILORING COMPANY wish to say that when you wear the clothes we make you, you are not the man who lives in a rented house, who always sees improvements he would have made had he built the house.

THE MAN WHO BUILDS A HOUSE gets it the way he wants it the first time. Some one has said when you wear clothing made for no one in particular you are living in a "Cloth House," built without your knowledge or advice.

WHEN YOU WEAR THE CLOTHES WE MAKE you, then you are in your own "Cloth House," made for your own comfort and sightliness



WE PUT SHAPE INTO YOUR GARMENTS.

Your own individuality of this method is brought out strongly and your "market value," as employe or as director of business, will go up.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL — LOOK SUCCESSFUL. And this you can do by letting us make your clothes.

FOURTEEN DOLLARS is a small price to pay for a really fine business suit in dependable American woolens.

TWENTY DOLLARS and upwards mean imported woolens, every nicety of fit and finish.

DeBerry-Endsley
Wedding Solemnized

The wedding of Miss Toinette DeBerry, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William DeBerry of Stark county and Mr. Elmer Endsley, one of Coshocton county's most substantial young men was solemnized a week ago last Wednesday at noon at the home of the bride's parents near Beach City and was an excedingly pretty affair in all its details. The [illegible] and the [illegible] performed by Rev. E. A. Wyant in the presence of about [illegible] guests, those attending being Miss Clara Endsley of Keene, Miss Toinette Grant of Wilmot, A. C. Weatherwax of New Orleans and Edward Crawford of Coshocton. After the ceremony an elaborate weding dinner was served after which the young couple left for their own home near Bloomfield followed by the cordial good wishes of all their friends.

Among the guests were several from a distance including Miss Lena Daugherty of Roscoe.

Gowns of
The Graduates

One of the things which helps make commencement such a gladsome time each June is the "sweet girl graduate." She always look pretty in her dainty white gown and the bouquet of girls which is to be graduated from the Coshocton high school this evening is very far from being an exception to the general rule.

Miss Claire Glenn is to wear white wash chiffon trimmed in Maltese lace and insertion: Miss Faith Shannon, white batiste with insets of lace and embroidery: Miss Margaret Greene, white lingerine; Miss Lucy Merrell, white French lawn trimmed with lace: Miss Margie Agnew, a white embroidered robe gown with lace trimmings: Miss Anne Anderson will carry daisies, the class flower, and wear white batiste with panels of Baby Irish and German val; Miss Helen Brooke, a handsome white embroidered robe; Miss Nelle Dockenwaddle will carry carnations and wear a gown made of white swiss flouncing combined with val insertion; Miss Ione Glass, French Swiss trimmed with Swiss embroidery and val lace: Miss Wilma Clarke, white French Swiss with val lace. Miss Mary Selby will carry daisies, her gown being of white wash chiffon trimmed with lace. Miss Georgia Williams, white French Swiss with insertion and val lace.

The class boasts two masculine members, Don Porter and Harry Parrish and while they aren't saying just what they do expect to wear they are certain to be appropriately garbed—if the attire of the Heavenly Twins may be taken as a criterion.

Rheumatism Cannot Be Cured Unless Uric-O Is Used

SUDDEN DEATHS, HEART FAILURE AND PARALYSIS ARE CAUSED BY POISONOUS URIC AND RHEUMATIC ACIDS

The Rheumatic person is skeptical regarding the claims of almost any remedy advertised as a cure for Rheumatism and one can scarcely blame him for being so. All the plasters and liniments combined never actually cured a case of Rheumatism. They may relieve it in one quarter, but it is sure to break out somewhere else. The only true way to cure Rheumatism is to drive it from the system, for as long as the Uric and Rheumatic Acid remains in the blood, one is never entirely free from the trouble. This is where the value of Uric-O as a permanent cure for Rheumatism comes in. It seeks out the Rheumatic poison in the blood, muscles and kidneys, renders it inert and harmless and drives it out of the system. That is why Uric-O is such an admirable and effective cure for Rheumatism.

The chief reason that Uric-O is such a wonderful cure for Rheumatism is, that it is designed and prepared to cure Rheumatism and Rheumatism only. It is composed of perfect antidotes for the rheumatic acid poison in the system. That is the secret of its wonderful success. Rheumatism simply cannot exist in a person's system if Uric-O is used.

Uric-O is sold by druggists at 75c and $1.00 the bottle, but if you still feel skeptical about its efficacy you can test it free of charge by cutting out this advertisement and sending same together with your name and address, also the name of your druggist to The Smith Drug Company, Syracuse, N. Y., and they will send you a sample bottle free. To persons who write and say they have never used Uric-O, and want to test it thoroughly, and you will agree to take it systematically according to directions, they frequently give a regular 75c bottle free.

"Uric-O is sold and recommended in Coshocton by W. M. Smith, 430 Main street.

RACE TRACK IS A "SAUCER" ONE

Visitors at the county fair next October will see one of the best half mile race tracks in the state. Contractor Brink has it in excellent shape now, though bad weather has hampered him greatly and next week the improvement will be complete.

The track now has more of a saucer shape the inside being nearly level rising gradually toward the outer edge. The track has been raised several feet near the barns on the southeast side and near the quarter mile pole on the northeast side, making it look altogether different. The inside fence has all been torn away and a new board fence will be put up at once.

The clay which was used to improve the track was secured along the railroad just below the fair grounds. The best feature of it is that the water drains off into the center and the track dries very quickly instead of getting slippery and sticky.

CLASS PLAY

first act and right here let it be said that much of the success of the performance is due to Mr. Parrish who was business manager as well as star and performed every duty faithfully and well.

The production was exceptionally well put on. A Coshocton audience never had the pleasure of seeing a better amateur one and the diligence with which the young people have worked for its success promises much for what they can attain along other and more serious lines.

Notice of the play is not complete without mention of the excellent music furnished by the orchestra composed of Mr. Koeller, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Crider, Mr. Lint and the Messrs. Shipler whose selections turned the waits between the cast into a genuine pleasure.

The piano used was by courtesy of Mr. Cramblett.

The class prophecy which Miss Williams read with much charm of manner, is reproduced herewith in full:

The History and Prophecy

On Sept. 15, 1903, one of the largest and most brilliant classes entered the enticing halls of the Coshocton high school building. There were sixty-five who entered but only fourteen now remain to keep our reputation in the minds of the people. We have been singularly ill-fated in our high school career even from the entrance. The first three months we had four teachers and during this time seats were broken over our backs, zeroes given in abundance, and the halls were kept full of disconsolate Freshmen who had been requested kindly to leave the class. Miss Hazen did various gymnastic stunts such as hurdling the desks at the sight of a mouse; Mr. Beall's shoes squeaked as he walked across the floor but the greatest shock was when Elsie Miller shook the foundations of the building by falling in the hallway. What Senior can forget Mr. Frye's icy stare, which had the peculiar faculty of making a person melt away. With all of our ups and downs we had a never-to-be-forgotten good time during our Freshmen year.

Our second year started under more favorable auspices. Miss Hazen's mode of attack had changed and books were repeatedly thrown beneath the heater. During this year some of the Seniors sat in the same room with the Sophomores and Mr. Rarig who had charge of our room became bald trying to control two such classes. One noon there was subdued excitement in room B (which was our room) for the blinds were all drawn and the gas was lighted, while the culprit was no where to be found. Mr. Rarig inquired as to who was guilty but his researches were fruitless. He accused several Seniors of the deed but they arose in righteous indignation and were ready to jump on to poor Mr. Rarig when Bob McCabe of '05 thought that enough disturbance had been created he confessed to having lit the gas and pulled down the blinds so that order was soon restored. Some of the Sophomore boys sat in Mr. Cresap's room and were quite surprised at some of his athletic stunts. But the most marvelous and never to be forgotten day in the history of C. H. S. was when Mr. Rarig took the Sophomore girls on an automobile ride and the faculty gave the entire high school a spread.

This is one event in our high school history that we can never forget and so all who were in C. H. S. at this time when you think of the bad luck you had, here is at least one bunch of roses in your pathway. Then too there was the Junior Senior rush at the close of this year which caused vast excitement bordering on trouble.

As Juniors we sat in Mr. Peck's room and if there are any of us who did not get to sit on the front seat we are sure that Mr. Peck owes us an apology. Speaking of teachers Mr. Eddy was the one who informed us that we could see with our ears. Perhaps he could but even though we are Seniors we have not as yet accomplished the feat. We always say "Jolly Juniors," well maybe we were, but our grievances were many. We were forbidden the use of the high school building—a privilege which had been given to every class before and has been given to this year's Junior class. It hardly seems fair does it? But were we to be daunted? No! We rented a room and gave socials making more money than any other class ever did. By the close of the school year we had enough money to take the Seniors on a picnic to Adams Mills.

Our Senior year has been rather uninterrupted but we have worked hard training ourselves for our class play a thing never attempted by any other class. We say it and we are proud of it. Our class has always had good material for Athletics and we have done our best for the Literary societies. And now having finished our Class history which tells of the four happiest years of our life, so people say, although we can not see it in that way, let us take a glance into the future and see what the members of 1907 will be doing in ten years.

Helen Brooks was so delighted with her part as teacher in the Class play that she is now principal of a school for girls in Coshocton which is now a rival of New York when it comes to size.

Claire Glenn after graduating was the striking young stenographer at the Spellacy-Raff Enameling plant but after a few short years married the son of one of the proprietors.

Margaret Agnew or Marge as we always called her is traveling with a concert company.

Lucy Merrell is a successful school teacher.

Harry Parrish is a lawyer in Columbus, and we all think he has chosen the right vocation for the Senior Class all know his argumentative power.

Mary Selby is roaming through France and other European countries. We expect her to bring home with her a Duke, Prince or perhaps a surveyor.

Margaret Greene is teaching Latin in one of our most celebrated Eastern colleges.

John Glass is a famous singer and still has "Ayres."

Wilma Clark is happily married and living in Pittsburg.

Don Porter finished his education at Yale where he is now Football coach.

Faith Spencer is still keeping "Old Maids Hall" in Roscoe.

Nelle [illegible] finished a four years college course and won great honor but she is now married to a young gentleman who so faithfully attended all of our Senior Class play rehearsals.

Anne Anderson keeps a wholesale bakery on Fourth street.

Leaving the high school with the class of 1907 is Mr. Richer who has been principal for nine long and pleasant years. Although he leaves for a higher position his name will still remain in the minds of the members of classes of '08, '09, '10.

The class of '07 also desire to thank their superintendent, friends, and the faculty for the help and kindness they have shown us during the last four years, but we have always tried to live up to our motto: "Do all things well."

WARSAW MAN ATTENDS BIG CATTLE SALE

J. C. Bower, who resides one mile east of Warsaw and makes a specialty of breeding Angus cattle, stopped off in Coshocton Friday morning on his way home from Hillsboro, Highland county where he attended a combination sale of registered cattle conducted by Dr. H. M. Brown. Mr Brown purchased a fine Aberdeen Angus bull, one year old, for $95, this being the next to the highest price paid at the sale. A Summit county man paid $140 for another animal and they shipped them home together. Twenty-two Short Horns were sold at an average of $62.72. Twenty seven Aberdeen Angus cattle average $76.30 per head.

Ingalls' Address.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 7. — M. E. Ingalls, chairman of the board of directors of the Big Four railroad, spoke to the members of the Commercial club here. He called the attention of the members to legislation enacted by the legislature aimed at the railroads and urged them to erase these laws from the statute books when the legislature again convenes. He called especial notice to the "shippers bill" and a measure designed to compel railroads in the state of Indiana to move freight at least fifty miles a day. Mr. Ingalls said there were many things which railways have done and are doing that may be unfair or unjust, but in the aggregate they are managed in the interest of the people.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was thought incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by the constant failing to cure it pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

REDMOND

Discusses Irish Affairs Before the Oxford Union.

Oxford, June 7.—As the specially invited guests of the famous Oxford union, of which William Glyne Gladstone, grandson of the statesman, is president, John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, took part in a debate on Irish affairs. Mr. Redmond declared Ireland had not rejected or would not reject any real extension of self government, but that every portion of the Birrell bill spelled distrust of the Irish people and this was why it had been rejected. Mr. Redmond explained at length conditions in Ireland, and at the conclusion of his remarks, the union, which is the cradle of many noted statesmen, passed a resolution by 359 to 226 in favor of Ireland managing her own affairs.

Claims Negroes Shot Up the Town.

Washington, June 7. — Mrs. Emma Leahy, proprietor of the Leahy hotel in Brownsville, Tex., told the senate committee on military affairs that she believed she could identify one of the [illegible] hearing firing at the garrison and seeing the flashes of guns she said that she saw 16 men in khaki uniforms in the Cowan alley shooting into the Cowan house. She was in a window of her hotel, about 40 feet away, and two of the men looked up while she was watching them. Just at that moment several shots were fired by members of the group, and she said she saw the two men distinctly. One was very black and the other a mulatto.

Do Not Neglect the Children

At this season of the year the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the remedy. For sale by C. E. Anderson, Coshocton, and C. M. Ferguson Roscoe.

A canvass of the iron and steel market warrants the statement that the last half of 1907 and the first half of the year 1908 will witness the largest producing capacity in the history of the United States and Canada.

DOC WILL PLAY IN LEFT WITH THE WIZARDS

Now if the weather man will be good, everything looks favorable for a large crowd at the ball game between Zanesville and the Wizards at Riverside Park Saturday afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock instead of 3:30 as announced on the window cards. The visitors desire to get home on No. 3 which necessitates calling the game at an early hour.

The grounds were put in first class shape today, and will be in excellent condition for the big game. The team is in fine form and are determined to win.

"Doc" Abbott has signified his willingness to play with the Wizards that day, and will cover left garden. This will be the first real game of base ball that "Doc" has played at home for some time.

Elks Go To Liverpool.

The Elk baseball team will journey to East Liverpool July 12 for a game Manager Neighbor's challenge having been accepted. A letter was received from F. D Thomas, manager of the Massillon Elks, and a game will be arranged for the latter part of this month or early in July.

BEFORE THE SUPREME CT.

Judge C. B. Hunt, Judge R. M Voorhees, James Glenn, and F. E Pomerene returned home from Columbus Friday afternoon after appearing before the supreme court in the Virginia township school case to test the constitutionality of the Lybarger law. Judge Hunt argued for the taxpayers, they having won in both the lower courts; Voorhees and Pomerene argued for the county treasurer. There was a full bench and the decision will be handed down sometime this month.

Davis Signs With Ashland

"Pug" Davis of Plainfield, who has pitched many games for the local teams, has signed with Ashland for the season. Davis left today for that city and will probably pitch Saturday. His ability is well known local fans, and a bright future is predicted for him.

Boys Strike; Plant Closed.

Steubenville, O., June 7. — The appearance of Needham and Pates of the Boston Nationals in Steubenville caused the shut-down and strike at the Acme glass works, the largest independent chimney house in the world. The finishing boys on day turn laid off to see the two players, who live near the plant, and the night boys refused to work after learning that the day boys had quit. The leader was discharged and all the boys quit, shutting down the plant. A detail of police was sent to the works to guard it until the officials settled the strike. Thirteen hundred employes are idle.

Price Goes to Akron.

"Curly" Price who is pitching for Ashland and shut out the Marion team of the O. & P. league in a 12-inning game has ben offered $150 to pitch for Akron and will probably accept the offer. He is a pitcher everyone must respect and his friends predict that he will soon be in the big league.

Play at Dennison.

The Coshocton team goes to Dennison Saturday for a game with the P. H. A. C. team. Carnes will be on the rubber for the locals, and big Dave Wright will do the twirling for the home team.

To Play Keene.

The "All Swedes" will go to Keene Saturday afternoon for a game at that village. The line up of the team is Seigle c; Hock and Ehrich p; Laker ss; White and Roadruck 1b; Wimmer 2b; Ross 3b Brennan lf; Unger cf; Stonebrook rf.

Jim Collins is Traded

Boston, June 7—Jimmy Collins, former manager of the Boston Americans was traded today for John Knight, third baseman, to the Philadelphia Athletics

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

Back to Beaver

General Michaels, of West Lafayette, who began this season pitching for Sharon, Pa., in the O. & P. league, and later pitched for Beaver Falls, but was released, returned to the latter city today. Michaels is a good pitcher and the Beaver Falls people seem to have awakened to that fact.

THE BEST BEER— CHAMPAGNE VELVET

¶ In beer, as in anything else, there is but one "best". It is a case of one in a class—there is room for no other.

¶ Champagne Velvet has, since its introduction, steadfastly maintained its supremacy over all other bottled beers, until to-day it is taxing the capacity of the largest brewery in Indiana to keep up with the popular demand.

¶ The next time you order a bottle of beer join the procession and insist on getting the best—insist on getting Champagne Velvet. And let this be your reminder to have a case sent to your home.

DEPENDABLE PORCH FURNITURE

The time of year is at hand when we spend most of our leisure hours on the porch and lawn. In the appointment of porch furniture, just as much care should be exercised as though you were furnishing a room. We are showing a line that will stand all kinds of weather and retain its good looks indefinitely.

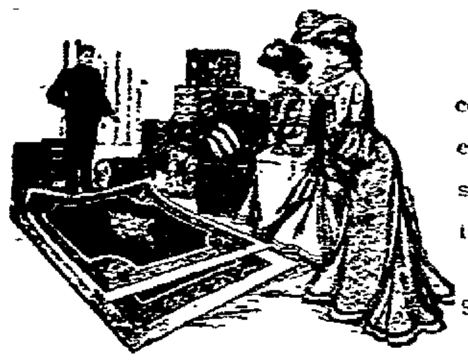
The frames are of thoroughly seasoned rock maple and are beautifully finished; seats are of heavy double splint cane carefully woven together, making almost an indestructible seat.

The prices are as follows:

Ladies rocker with slat back	$1.00
Ladies rocker with woven cane	$1.50
Full size rocker with slat back	$2.00
Rocker settees—large and roomy	$4.50
Ladies high back rocker with woven cane back	$2.00
Very large rocker, slat and cane backs—very comfortable	$2.50 and $3.00

See this line before you buy.

Our Busy Third Floor
Carpets, Linoleum, Rugs



The weather seems not to lessen the laying activity in this floor covering section. We have been busy every day Our large and comprehensive line comprises most things that are needed in Coshocton homes. To buy floor coverings without seeing "The Fountain" line is poor judgment and poorer economy.

9x12 Axminster Rugs $20.00

Our Picture Department

The success of this department, that is yet in its infancy, has been phenomenal. We carry the new art studies in colors and in black and white, a beautiful line of artistic oval frames, and a strong line of framed pictures for dining room, library or den. We show an exceptionally pretty line of picture mouldings in natural woods and gilts. If you have pictures to frame bring them to the Fountain. We guarantee our work to be perfect in every detail.

THEN HO FOR PICNIC OF ALUMNI AT MRS. GRAY'S

All aboard for Adams Mills! This will be the cry next Monday when the Alumni of the Coshocton high school will take the class of '07 for a day's outing at Mrs. Gray's beautiful home ten miles below Coshocton. Good weather is all that is asked for, all the other arrangements having been satisfactorily made. A hundred or more will board the second section of No 19 Monday noon at 11 48 and an effort is being made to have No. 20 stop at Adams Mills at ten o'clock Monday night. If the effort is unsuccessful the return trip will be made on No. 22 which arrives here at 6:17.

Mrs. Gray has promised a delicious chicken dinner, sufficient in itself to induce every active and every honorary Alumnus to go if possible. Her summer home was never more attractive having been remodeled and a new piano added It is the most delightful spot imaginable and those who recall the annual picnic there two years ago are very anxious to go again.

S. H. Nicholas is to be the toast master if he can get away from his judicial duties at Wooster long enough to do so. Miss Grace Carr will tell about her trips to New York and Chicago. Everet Preston is to deliver a short speech. Miss Macra Palm has been chosen for the address of welcome and Miss Claire Glenn will give the response. Prof Richer is on the program for a toast The musical program will consist of vocal solos by Prof. Ashley. Helen Agnew and Mame Burns, piano solos by Erma Coe and Jessie Smith. Miss Mary McGinnis will whistle.

Every member of the Alumni who can possibly arrange to go is urged to do so. It will be a rare treat and every one ought to take advantage of it from a pleasure standpoint to say nothing of the duty of maintaining the grand institution the Coshocton Alumni association.

gram received and telegram sent by Orchard after his arrest in this state. The state began its corroboration of Orchard's crimson tale by producing the lead casing of the Peabody bomb. Orchard identified it, swore that he brought it from Canyon City to Denver and then on to Wallace, where he gave it to a man named Cunningham. It was thrown into the river and the state promises to prove its recovery. Haywood and his kinsfolk listened quietly to the long recital, and about their first show of feeling was one of amusement when Attorney Richardson began his onslaught and brought out Orchard's domestic crimes.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

Chronic Ulcers are the result of a deeply polluted and foul blood supply. The blood is filled with impurities and germs which are being constantly fed into the place through the circulation, until all the surrounding flesh becomes diseased and the sore an obstinate and permanent trouble. Every symptom of an old ulcer suggests pollution; the discharge, the red, angry looking flesh, the inflammation and discoloration of surrounding parts, all show that the ulcer is prevented from healing by the constant drainage through it of impurities from the blood. This impure condition of the blood may be hereditary, or it may be the remains of some constitutional disease, or the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption of the refuse of the body which has not been properly expelled through the natural channels. But whatever the cause, the blood is so weakened and polluted that it does not properly nourish and stimulate the place, and the sore cannot heal. Salves, plasters, lotions, etc., keep the sore or ulcer clean, relieve pain, and perhaps reduce inflammation, but can never permanently heal them because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes down to the very fountain-head of the trouble, drives out all poisons and germs, builds up the weak, sluggish blood, gives energy and strength to the system, and by sending a fresh, healthy stream of blood to the diseased parts, allows the ulcer to heal naturally and permanently. Nothing reaches inherited taints like S. S. S. It cleanses the circulation of every trace of hereditary disease or impurity, and those who have nursed and treated an old sore for years will experience good results as soon as the system becomes influenced by S. S. S. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

The First Table Fork

Was said to be used in the year 1097 when a certain Prince gave his bride a gold one for a wedding gift. The guests were said to have been astounded to see bride carrying the food to her mouth by it. France this year is celebrating in her society circles by many banquets being held in commemoration of the six hundredth anniversity of its use in France. England ate with her fingers until 1608. China refuses to accept them even today, and persists in using the chop sticks on the ground of cleanliness—a new set is given with every meal. There is nothing, however, that adds to the appearance of the table or meal like rich and good table ware. Our grandmothers cherished and handed down their solid silver and who does not envy her the pride of displaying the rich and beautiful old souvenirs For those who wish a desirable and lasting souvenir for a friend or relative there is nothing you can give that equals a nice piece of silver. The June brides and the coming future with birthdays will appreciate and treasure nothing more than a piece even from a single spoon or fork up to a set. Our line is all new, and we invite your call that we can show you how good and how cheap we can fit you out.
